

Directions: You may either buy or produce computer-generated labels. If you are producing labels, follow the listed instructions to assist you.

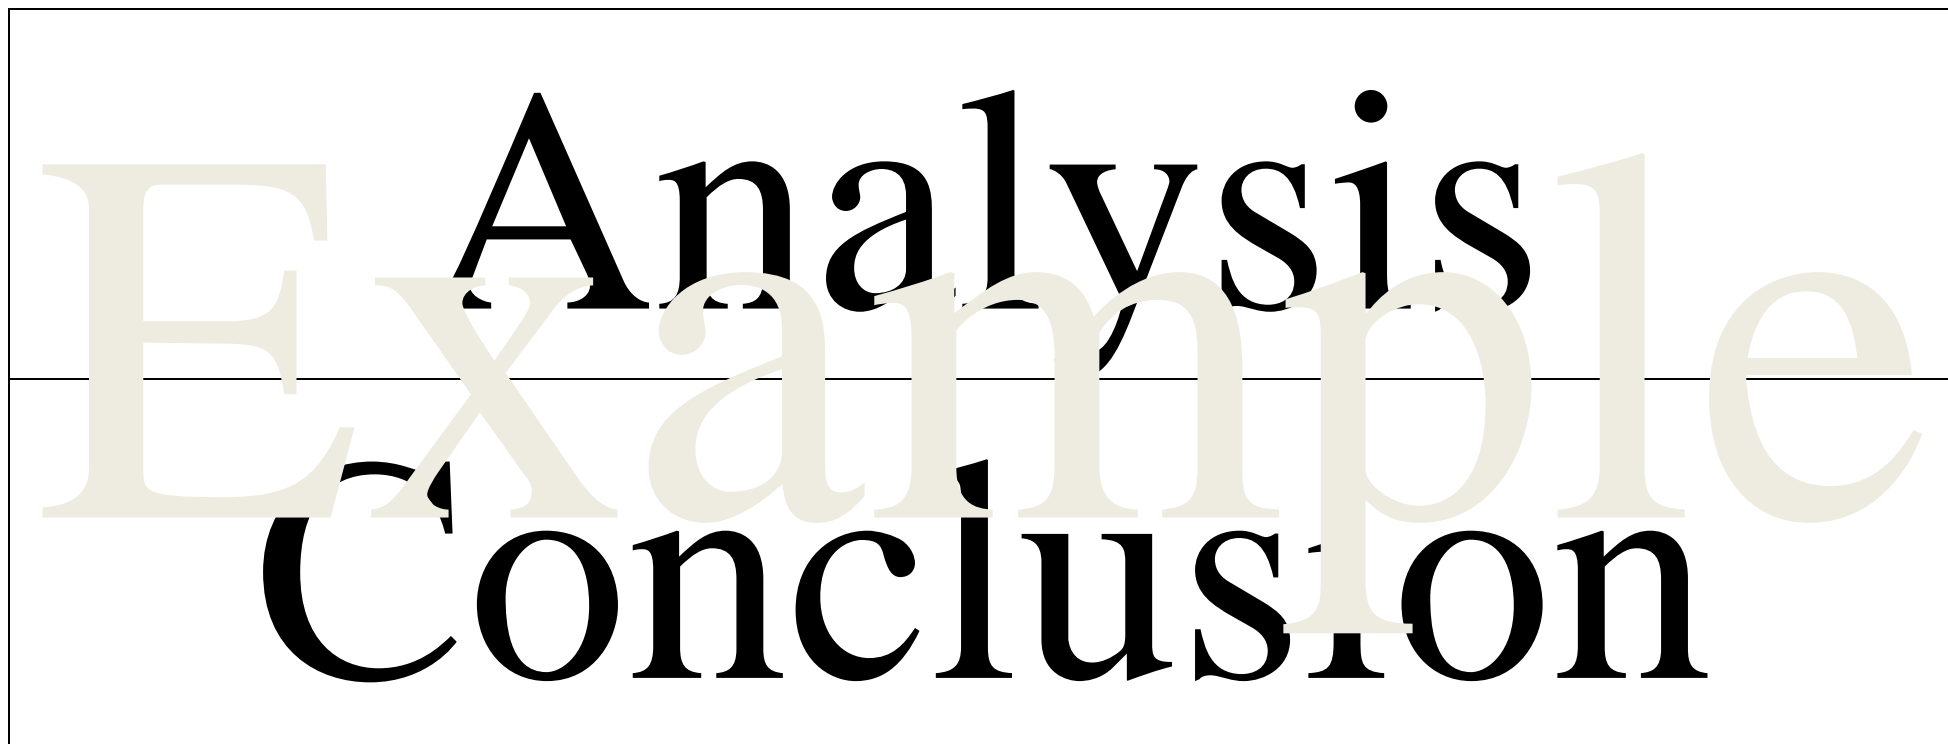

1. Create a one-column table.
2. Center and enlarge the font to approximately 2 inches (120 points if the font is in Times New Roman).
3. Type the eighth required labels (i.e. Objective, Hypothesis, Materials, Procedures, Results, Results, Analysis, and Conclusion). You may use synonyms for some of the labels (i.e. Objective, Materials, Procedures, and Results) when applicable.
4. Print and cut out the labels along the lines.

Procedures
Example
Results

Results
Labels

Directions: You may either buy or produce computer-generated labels. If you are producing labels, follow the listed instructions to assist you.

1. Create a one-column table.
2. Center and enlarge the font to approximately 2 inches (120 points if the font is in Times New Roman).
3. Type the eighth required labels (i.e. Objective, Hypothesis, Materials, Procedures, Results, Results, Analysis, and Conclusion). You may use synonyms for some of the labels (i.e. Objective, Materials, Procedures, and Results) when applicable.
4. Print and cut out the labels along the lines.

Labels